Police Expert To Talk About Bad Checks

Eugene Morosoli of the California Wine Advisory Board spoke to the Albany Exchange Club on wines and their effect on California's economy at the club's meeting Tuesday.

Next week when the members meet at Greco's Restaurant, they will hear Inspector Smith of the Albany Police Department tell of fictitious checks and how the small business man is faced with thousands of dollars a week by these so-called "paper hangers." Smith will be introduced by Police Chief Ralph Jensen, a member of the local club.

Old Trading Post Is Revived For Northbrae Fete

The atmosphere of an Old Trading Post is being recreated by the committee in charge of Friday Day festivities at Northbrae Community Church for Saturday, Sept. 24, starting at 10 a.m. and closing at 5 p.m.

The Youth Hut will be the Trading Post and clustered about will be various tents and booths housing the many exhibits and concessions. The magnificence of Earl Blair and his coworkers is being taxed to accommodate them all.

The idea came to the festival committee, because of the many Indian families recently come to live in our bay cities. One of the highlights of the affair will be an exhibit of authentic Indian handicrafts, pottery, baskets, weaving and jewelry. Presiding over the exhibit will be Mrs. Laura Costello, a California Mono Indian, and Mrs. Margaret Lin, a Pueblo Indian from New Mexico.

Two young Indian boys will demonstrate native dances. Mrs. John Hastings, who lived many years on a reservation where her father was a doctor, will sing songs of the Navahos.

A patent medicine man will be loitering about the post selling his "cure all" while the furnishes amusement for everyone. Mrs. Shirley Kester, who is in charge of the program says that there will be a real magician present, Dr. Albert Treichner, to perform at intervals.

All styles of aprons, large and small, are being thought up by Mrs. E. B. Ranson and Mrs. C. H. Warner. Every imaginable thing will be found in Mrs. Patsy Sprout's gift shop. It is books that are wanted, a visit to Miss Frances Houton's book nook will be rewarding, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Maier will please the little folks with their top shop. And of course the little girls will love the shelves of beautiful dolls and their wardrobes which Mrs. Lillian Alenskiel has been supervising for months.

To enjoy all this and more the guests who want to come and spend the day, so luncheon will be cafeteria style at noon. Mrs. Ross Ferguson and Mrs. C. T. Goutle are in charge. Mrs. Alice Quick and her aides will dispense "snacks" on the grounds.

Here is San Pablo Avenue view of the newly remodeled Pic 'N Pac Supermarket at Gilman Street and San Pablo. With 10,000 square feet of floor space, customer parking lot with entrance from either street, and a brand new fully stocked liquor department with entrance on the corner, Pic 'N Pac is having a special celebration with bargain prices on many items, and valuable gifts for customers. Another Pic 'N Pac Market is located on San Pablo Avenue, at San Diego Street, in El Cerrito.

Pic 'N Pac Supermarket In Celebration

Newly remodeled and redecorated throughout the Pic 'N Pac Supermarket at San Pablo Avenue and Gilman Street is holding a special celebration this weekend with bargain prices on many items, many valuable gifts to customers, and a festival attitude among its many employees. The supermarket is open seven days a week from 8 a.m. to 12 midnight.

During the last several weeks workmen have been busy in remodeling, repainting, and re-arranging to make the plant one of the finest of its type in the entire Bay Area. Occupying a floor space of upwards of 10,000 square feet, with a main cold storage vault big enough to contain a great variety of frozen foods, in addition to the cold storage display cases and the help-you-serve refrigerators on the sales floor, the plant has everything handy for the customer's inspection and most attractively displayed under the brilliant fluorescent tube lights from above.

Lewis M. Howell, Mayor of Albany and prominent in local business circles for many years, is general manager of this store, as well as of the one in El Cerrito. Speaking of the just completed remodeling project Howell said: "We not only have changed departments around to make them more accessible to the customers, but we have added several new departments, including an entirely new liquor department, a drug sundry department, housewares and stationery."

"The newly added and equipped liquor department is one of which I am sure any market might well be proud," he said. "It is completely stocked, well lighted, and easily accessible from the street without going through the market proper, being located on the corner and with a corner entrance."

The air of completeness on entering the market is especially marked. The visibility is good—the customer can see over most of the central shelving, and can find his or her way around among the departments without being confused. Behind the two wings are large warehouse storage rooms, with loading platforms out of the way of customer parking. The customer parking space, incidentally, is exceptionally large and handy, and is accessible from either San Pablo or Gilman.

All-in-all the "new" Pic 'N Pac is a model supermarket. The liquor department, entirely new, is set off from the remainder of the market as a wing running back from San Pablo on Gilman, while the meat department is in a sparkling setting across the south end of the market proper. The El Cerrito Pic 'N Pac Supermarket is joining in the same bargains and gifts as are being offered at San Pablo and Gilman.

ZAHN ASKS POULTRY SLAUGHTER BE STOPPED

Albany City Council took the first steps on Monday night to halt the slaughter of poultry, rabbits and live animals within its city limits by unanimously passing a motion asking City Attorney Foley to draw up an amendment to Ordinance No. 444, a health ordinance, and at the same time to advise the council on the legal aspects of the matter.

The first motion was offered by Councilwoman Katie Zahn, seconded by Councilman Combs. Then came a motion by Councilman Jerome Blank, who said he concurred in the previous action, but believed the poultry firms should be notified immediately by letter of the Council's contemplated action. This also passed unanimously.

This action was taken following presentation of a petition signed by 16 residents of the vicinity in which the poultry firm is located—937 San Pablo Avenue—complaining of the odor, flies, etc. and maintaining the conditions were a menace to health and comfort.

The property had been previously checked by the City Health Department, and in his written report to the Council, Assistant Health Officer Dr. McIntyre had stated the property was clean, was not a health menace, and was in keeping with the ordinances involved, although he admitted there was some odor.

City Attorney Foley is on vacation, and the Council will not meet next Monday owing to the annual meeting of the League of California Cities in San Francisco, Sept. 18-21, therefore the matter will be left for further action at the Council meeting on Monday, Sept. 26.

The new Push-Button Necchi Automatic is the only machine that does everyday sewing jobs
 as automatically as it makes fancy stitches!
 And it's unbelievably easy to use!

JUST PUSH A BUTTON! It makes instant, complete buttonholes. (No other home machine is automatic enough to bind both sides, bartack both ends, all in one operation.) Just push a button... it mends, darns, makes perfectly tapered monograms, all by itself!

FANCY STITCHES! There's no limit, as there is with machines having built-in discs. The new Necchi makes designs never before possible
